EMAIL CORRESPONDENCE
WITH THE COURT

MARY KAY VYSKOCIL, United States District Judge:

For the completeness of the record and the avoidance of any doubt about the deadlines in this matter, the Court is docketing the attached email correspondence with the parties concerning the Court's earlier Order dated April 8, 2021 [ECF #35].

SO ORDERED.

Date: April 8, 2021
New York, NY

MARY KAY VYSKOCIL

Subject: RE: Activity in Case 1:20-cv-03484-MKV UCC Asset Management Corp. et al v. Global Merchant Bond Series, Inc. Scheduling Order
Date: Thursday, April 8, 2021 1:47:00 PM

Good afternoon,

The Order was not issued in error. Judge Vyskocil stated that she would grant the parties 60 days from their March 15, 2021 request. That is May 14, 2021. The parties may allocate as much of that time to settlement as they wish, but all of the discovery that the parties will conduct in this case must be complete by May 14, 2021. No further extensions will be granted.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Dear Chambers of the Honorable Mary Kay Vyskocil:

The parties appeared for a phone conference this morning in this matter. On the call, Judge Vyskocil indicated she was granting an extension for 60 days to complete discovery, with a status update letter due after 30 days. This would effectively give the parties 30 days to attempt to settle the matter and 30 days to complete discovery before appearing at the next conference. As the issued order does not comport with Judge Vyskocil's oral directive, the parties respectfully write to determine if this order was perhaps issued in error.

Respectfully submitted,

Evan W. Bolla
